Jeanne Simon Bio

Jeanne Pappas Simon has been a producer, writer, and content creator in the entertainment industry for over 24 years.

Jeanne started as a new reporter and a cable talk show host outside of St. Louis, MO. She began to manage and produce news specials, documentaries and training videos.

Her career moved Jeanne to Los Angeles, where her Hollywood roots go back to the days of Ben Hurr when her Uncle Ben Thau was the president of MGM.

In Los Angeles, Jeanne worked on a number of Roger Corman films and Lethal Weapon 2. It was while working on the HBO series, 1st & 10, where she met her husband, Mark.

Jeanne and Mark moved to Orlando to help open the new Nickelodeon Studios in 1989. While there she developed the Nickelodeon production management book and moved into producing many of Nickelodeon's top-rated shows.

She has produced over 400 episodes of TV such as Nickelodeon's Clarissa Explains It All, Roundhouse, Gullah Gullah Island, Weinerville, and Allegra's Window. She also developed the format for International Blue's Clues. Jeanne moved to Atlanta and worked on Cartoon Network's Carrot Top's A.M. Mayhem, their first live-action series. Jeanne was also a writer/producer/director on TNN's reality series Roller Jam.

The Gen X network she co-developed for Turner Broadcasting was green lit by Ted Turner and Scott Sassa (Sassa later moved on to become president of NBC). She also co-wrote and co-developed Timmy's Lessons in Nature which was the Grand Prize winner in Nickelodeon's first-ever Nicktoons Film Festival.

Rave Reviews about Mark's lectures/writing

"Everything in useable and practical in this training program. The value is way beyond the cost and the guest speakers were phenomenal. Mark and Jeanne are the two most passionate people we have ever met. Thank you for everything you're doing."

Darrin & Tina Lutz
Executive Members

"This is the only program I've been able to find that shows you practically how to sell your TV concept step-by-step. I was surprised by the volume of information they gave us. The surprise guests added so much. Having your own TV show isn't as mysterious as I thought. I'm sure glad I joined."

Jim Trippon
Executive Member

"This is a great, great seminar. This is the only seminar of its kind that I'm aware of. If you're interested in producing a TV show, this is a great place to be. I'm a TV producer, but I don't have the experience in selling a TV show. If you have a concept, come here first and learn how to sell a show."

Herb Gross
August 2007 Hit Makers Summit Attendee

"I still have the adrenaline pumping from the Summit. So well organized! It was fun but even more importantly, it was such a learning experience. It was sort of like American Idol with Simon Cowell (Mark). Telling me what I want to hear is not doing me any favors so I really appreciate the honesty. That's how you learn! You guys really are there to help us and I thank you!"

Marco Flores
August 2007 Hit Makers Summit Attendee

"This has all been inspirational. Our passion for TV has increased. There's nothing else like this out there. We've looked. We couldn't wait for the next day. We now have a better shot at getting out show sold. Thank you, thank you, thank you."

Jackie & Will Petty
August 2007 Hit Makers Summit Attendees

“Mark and Jeanne are creative geniuses! They are the best creative partners I could ask for. Plus, Mark knows every marketing and publicity trick in the book. Because of them my animation show, Timmy’s Lessons In Nature, sold in France! This package is for any person serious about making a mark in the entertainment industry. Where else will you gain 40+ years experience in one place. It’s almost like having your very own producer in a box. A must have!”

Travis Blaise

Animator, Cartoon Network, Disney

“Mark was unbelievable. I created a show called Pondscum but we didn’t know how to fully develop it and pitch it. Mark’s advice and the samples he provided gave us everything we needed to develop our show beyond our original thoughts. We felt great going into our first pitch in Los Angeles and the response we got was better than we expected. The insight he provided regarding what to expect was priceless. Not only did we feel so much more confident presenting, we were as prepared as a team that has been pitching their whole career and it showed. We couldn’t have done it without him.”

Patty Thomas, Creator - Pondscum

“With this, you’ve got a complete package. I don’t see how there could be anything else you would need. They have saved me tens of thousands of dollars and now I’m ready to pitch!”

Hector Seda

Show Creator

"I have been in the industry all my life and have never experienced this level of professionalism and teaching from anyone else! I came to Mark and Jeanne with my show idea and in only one session walked away with a concrete one sheet, character development and several episode ideas! Their level of expertise is enhanced and their teaching is reinforced greatly by their CDs and books which truly are the information bibles for success! My belief level has taken a quantum leap and my confidence has soared! Their program offers the "nuts and bolts" of television production from an insider point of view. Thank you Jeanne and Mark for being the "wind beneath my wings"!
